MISS LILLY BLANCHARD

Prominent Washington Lady Found Dead in Bed at Her Home Yesterday, Death Being Due to Apoplexy.

Miss Lilly Blanchard, aged 73 years, one of the most prominent residents of the county, was found dead in bed at her home in Washington yesterday morning by her aged sister, Mrs. William White.

Mrs. White said that on Saturday night her sister seemed to be enjoying her usual health and that they both retired to their respective rooms at bed time. When Mrs. White went to call her sister on Sunday morning she found that Miss Blanchard was seemingly dead. Physicians and neighbors were called in and it was discovered that the good woman had been dead for several hours.

Coroner Charles Slack was called and after making an examination he pronounced that death was due to apoplexy. According to the family physician, Miss Blanchard has been suffering from hardening of the arteries for some time.

The funeral will be held from her late home at Washington tomorrow and it is probable that her remains will be cremated, as she has expressed a wish that this be done many times.

FRED ARN FOR CITY CLERK

FRED ARN
The Workingman's Candidate for CITY CLERK

Opens the campaign for the city election in November, and says that the encouragement he has received from the voters of Maysville is most gratifying. Mr. Arn, or "Brownie," as he is known by a host of friends and associates, is one of the most popular young men in our city, and one who cherishes the friendship of his acquaintances as a treasure. Fred Arn is one of Maysville's most promising business men; a clean, conscientious liver, a man of creative mind and virtuous thought, and one who has earned the privilege of being termed a working man, with a sincere desire in his heart, to serve his fellowmen, and hoping to some day reach the point in his life where he might be instrumental in causing the freedom in the homes of workingmen to burn brighter and to help the poor man to give his children the opportunities that are rightfully theirs. From the general run of conversation heard among the voters on the streets, Fred Arn is going to be about the hardest man to beat that has been in the City Clerk race for years.

NARROW ESCAPE

E. Stanley Holland, Big Boat Used at Dam, Hits Snag Saturday and Has Big Hole Rattled in Its Hull —Derrick Boats Keep It From Sinking.

The "E. Stanley Holland," steamboat used by the Bates and Rogers Construction Co. at Lock and Dam No. 33 just east of the city, narrowly escaped sinking on Saturday afternoon when it ran into a snag at that place.

The boat is being used to tow barges of sand used in filling. The boat was engaged in this work when it struck a large snag, a remainder of the cofferdams built by the contractors to carry on their work.

A large hole was torn in the hull of the steamer and had not two derrick boats come immediately to the assistance of the boat, it would have sunk within a short time. As it was the lower deck was covered to a depth of several feet with water.

DEATH OF MR. FRANK COCKRELL

Mr. Frank Cockrell, aged 72 years, well-known Maysvillian, dropped dead at his home on Sixth street Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Cockrell had been ill for some time of kidney trouble, which was indirectly the cause of his death. For a number of years he was employed as a blacksmith at the Hall Plow factory and later in life tended the city lights when the old gas lights were in use. He was also janitor at the city offices for several years. Deceased was a quiet, unassuming sort of fellow, who was much respected for his gentlemanly ways.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. George Crawford and Miss Addie Cockrell of this city and Mr. Thomas Cockrell of Kansas City, Mo.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his sister, Mrs. George Crawford, on Lee street. Services by Rev. A. F. Stahl of the Christian Church. Burial in the Maysville cemetery.
